Powder River Prep Expectations & Agreement

To be a part of Powder River Prep, families and students agree to:

1. Uphold academic integrity and strive for excellence in all aspects of learning.
2. Foster a culture of respect toward teachers, staff, fellow students, and families.
3. Adhere to school policies and handbook, including dress code and behavioral expectations.
4. Take personal responsibility for learning, behavior, and contributions to the school.
5. Support the school's mission and values, promoting a positive learning environment.
6. Affirm alignment with the mission and values of Powder River Prep – Conservative Values & Christian Faith Based.
7. Commit to at least ½ day of parent involvement each week to support the school's programs and activities.
8. Ensure that our child brings a nutritious, well-balanced lunch each day, as the school does not provide lunch.
9. Maintain open and respectful communication with staff and fellow parents to foster a collaborative community.

By signing below, you acknowledge and agree to abide by these expectations as part of the Powder River Prep community.
